

Ever since I can remember one could tape radio and then TV shows. I am against anything that would prevent this. In fact if this comes to pass I will not watch anything that prohibits making a tape. Thus not watching the commercials also. In fact I will not even buy the equipment needed to make the tape.